Washington, DC: The Washington Sculptors Group (WSG) is pleased to announce the establishment of a collaborative initiative with the Kreeger Museum entitled "Sculpture on the Grounds." This new invitational series will feature the work of selected WSG member artists for year-long shows on the east lawn of the Kreeger Museum's Sculpture Garden.

For this inaugural exhibition, artists Wendy Ross and Foon Sham were selected by co-curators Judy A. Greenberg, Director of the Kreeger Museum, and Francoise Yohalem, Public Art Consultant and WSG Advisory Board member. Each year, the WSG will invite a guest co-curator to work with Ms. Greenberg in selecting artists for future exhibitions. This first show will be on view until June 2010.

The Kreeger Museum is located at 2401 Foxhall Road, NW in Washington, DC, 20007 and the sculpture garden is open to the public at no charge, Tuesdays-Fridays, 10 am – 12 pm and 1–3 pm, and on Saturdays, 10 am – 4 pm.

The "Sculpture on the Grounds" initiative provides the WSG with yet another platform for featuring the work of their members and for achieving its mission of promoting an awareness and understanding of sculpture in the DC metropolitan area. The program also complements the Kreeger's interest in collaborating with Washington, DC-area artists through opportunities such as The Kreeger Museum Artist Award, Artist Talks and Inside the Artist's Studio.
