SCULPTURE 1275:

Kyan Bishop

January 26 – March 27, 2009

Washington, DC: The Washington Sculptors Group (WSG) is pleased to announce the opening of the third exhibition in a series of sculpture solos to be featured in the lobby of 1275 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW.

In cooperation with the Axent Realty Group, the WSG is presenting a series of curated sculpture exhibitions to showcase the work of their membership. This exhibition features the work of Kyan Bishop, who was chosen by Anne Surak, Director of Project 4, one of the DC area's leading commercial galleries that feature the work of mid-career and emerging contemporary artists. Ms. Surak was selected by the WSG to serve as a juror for these shows.

WSG member Kyan Bishop lives in Washington, DC and her studio is located in Mount Rainier, MD. Her sculpture and installation work have been shown in numerous galleries across the country, most recently at Arthur Roger Gallery in New Orleans, LA as part of Prospect.1, Gallery RFD in Swainsboro, GA, and C. Emerson Gallery in St. Petersburg, FL. In the DC metropolitan area, her work has been included in exhibitions sponsored by Transformer, DCAC (District of Columbia Arts Center), Arlington Arts Center, and McLean Project for the Arts. Ms. Bishop graduated from Denison University with a B.A. in Economics and Spanish and a Studio Art degree from Montgomery College.

Exhibition dates are January 26 – March 27, 2009.

A wine and cheese reception with the artist will be held on Thursday, February 19 from 5:30 to 7:30 pm. All are welcome to attend.

The building lobby is accessible Monday through Friday during the hours of 8 am - 8 pm and the entrance is on 13th Street, facing Freedom Plaza. The exhibition is free and open to the public.
